“ I thought the world of Miss Ruth. I watched her mother 3 boys, be a loving wife, & be a dedicated professional. I hear her now, saying don't cry Marky, but I can't help it. She always listened out for me on those long nights at BPD. I can name several times she kept me from getting hurt. Bless ya'll Terry, Jerry, & Tony...

“ Knowing Ruth in her many years of public service, I always thought of her as a great southern lady and matriarch.

“ My thoughts go out to the Langley family at this time of loss. I will always remember Ruth as a kind and generous person. When I was first appointed to serve as Municipal Judge in Carrollton she was serving as the Court Clerk. She took me under her wing and made sure that I didn't make any rookie mistakes. I will always be grateful for her wisdom and good cheer. She and her family have made a huge contribution to the quality of the community we live in.
