*My name is Betty Moon, Travis's widow. Travis' mother was Hattie Lou Brown Moon (Jim). Travis and I were lucky indeed to be invited over the past several years, to your "Brown Cousins" Get-togethers. We totally and gratefully enjoyed every one of them. And met some of the BEST people I've ever met. They are all so friendly, and sweet, and have such beautiful sincere smiles and spirits. So I assume, and am sure that Mr. S.T. was of the same kind of Goodness, Kindness, and Sweetness as the rest of the famiy is. I didn't know about this until just now, but you all were truly blessed to have such a good man, and may God bless and keep each one of you in this sad time.....memories grow sweeter every day.....and I wish you all a blessed Christmas, and a prosperous New Year, and the Peace that passeth all understanding. If any of you are ever in Roanoke, I live at 604 Cannon St...come by and see me. With my love,
Betty*
