“ Butch and I spent several years paired up together on the New Hanover County Sheriff's traffic unit. Butch was one of the funniest and most enjoyable fellows I ever had the pleasure to work with. My condolences go out to his family. I can assure you, he lives on in the hearts and minds of all who knew him. Personally, I carry with me many great memories of working with and knowing Butch. He was always the optimist, and always that person that could brighten up your day, no matter what problems either of you were facing. God be with you Butch. I'll see you later buddy.

“ Butch was a great man and a good friend. I had the pleasure to work with Butch at the NHSO. He and I had so many laughs together. I was fortunate enough that my wife and I were able to baby sit both Jesse and Clint while they were small. Butch would Bragg on those two boys to me. If you were ever around Butch trust me he would poke your arm and say hey, what did I tell ya and start ah laughing. He was such a great Golfer too. There are so many great things I could say about Butch but I will sum it up by saying, Butch was a friend, father, husband and he was loved by so many. Butch go rest with God and go receive your Wings of blue. I send prayers to the family.

“ Butch and I began our friendship as children living at Carolina Beach, a friendship I will forever cherish. I had a deep respect for Butch’s career in Law Enforcement. Butch and I enjoyed each other’s company playing golf together, a game that Butch played like the Pro. He was a family man who loved his two boys unconditionally. I loved Butch like a brother and I will miss him, as will so many other friends. My prayer is that God will grant his entire family grace and mercy during this difficult time.

I have fond memories of Butch. Too many to list here, but one that everyone will appreciate is when Butch and I stopped a Catholic nun for speeding. She was absolved of her sin and sent on her way. God bless his family. He was a delightful man and consummate professional.
