“ I knew Mark but a few years, yet in that time we shared a million laughs. Always quick with a smile or a joke I knew Mark to be kind, supportive and generous. He was always passionate about his wife and son, his family and baseball. I respected him as a family man, counted him as a close friend and cared for him deeply even though he cheered for the Braves. Of the many things i will long remember about our friendship one of my favorite memories is the night we watched the movie Blazing Saddles. With Marks easy manner and infectious laugh it took us nearly 4 hours to get through the movie because we kept re-watching parts and hitting pause so we could catch our breath. For Lee, Matthew and all of Marks family i have no words to assuage the grief we share or express the sympathy i hold for you but i would like to thank you for making Mark a part of my life too.
