Other survivors include her great-grandchild, Kenzi Knowles, her sister, Emily Douthit (Sam), and nieces, nephews, and several grand-nieces and nephews.

Those blessed to have Ms. Sue as a friend will long remember her giving spirit, amazing talents in the kitchen, and her welcoming table from which she could feed the multitudes her famous chicken salad, oven-fried chicken, chicken pie, homemade biscuits, and mouth-watering pound cake.

The family would like to express their sincere thanks to The Oaks of Carrollton, Guardian Angels, and especially to Dorian and Taylor Dennis for taking such good care of Ms. Sue for the last four years of her life.

The family will receive guests at Ms. Sue's home at 123 South Lakeshore Drive, Carrollton, on Saturday, August 9, 2014, from 1:00 PM – 7:00 PM. All who knew and loved her are welcomed to drop in to celebrate her life.
