“ I JUST saw notice of sweet Miss Tanya’s death. I am beyond shocked, beyond words. She was the sweetest, most gracious and happy young lady ever. I had the pleasure of knowing her and all the family and I feel so blessed because of it. She will be deeply missed. Her WHOLE family is in my thoughts and prayers. May God bless them all with His comforting peace.
Just beyond the dark door of death, the Christian is greeted by the smiling face of Jesus.
Until we meet again in Heaven, May you rest in peace, Tanya.

“ I am sorry that I will be working the day of the services and unfortunately will not get to be there to express my sympathy. I've known Tanya and Wade basically most of my life. She was a very special lady! Lots of laughs anytime she was around. She treated my daughter in law like a daughter, my son like her own and didn't mind getting on to him when he did certain little things to irk her lol. She loved my grandkids like they were her own. Praying for peace n comfort in the days ahead to each one of y'all! Love, Kristi Geter
