“ Mr. Dewberry was a truly nice man. He would always come and talk to me after my football games in high school, and we would talk about how I did and how the team was doing. He was a friend of mine even before I knew who he was. His support of me through my high school years meant a lot to me, more than I think he knew, and I will cherish it. My prayers are with his family, he will sincerely be missed.

“ I thought a lot of Terry Dewberry. I worked with his sister Nita at Wal-Mart and he used to come in all of the time. You would aggravate me and tell me that I needed to cook him some good food. I would say y'all ought to cook me a steak and he works say an Alabama steak which is really bologna. He was always being funny. He will be missed by many. Love y'all Nita Dewberry and family. Will be keeping y'all in my prayers.
