“ I lived in the Bumcomb community as a child in the early 1950's. I have SO many memories of the rolling store. We would stand at the road for the longest time waiting. MY mother Doris Traylor Kittle was a friend of Mr Daniel when they were kids. She spoke of him often when she was telling memories of her childhood. Just wanted you to know that Doe Daniel lived in the minds of many children that were on the rolling store route. There is no mega store of today that brings me the joy that I received from see that converted bus. God Bless Lindy Farr Spinks
