I snapped this photo of Trav at the Parish Fair of 2016. Trav and I worked together for Southern Natural Gas Company at Franklinton, Louisiana. I enjoyed working on his shift and he apparently liked having me as well. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Dale and I always commented on how spry and lively Travis was on the dance floor at the Ozone Squares. We aspire to be as light of spirit and step when we reach our 80s as well! Travis was always there to help with greenie classes. He even stepped in and played the part of Drosselmeyer when our greenie class had to present its graduation skit. We had put together a musical spoof on the Nutcracker ballet titling it the "Square Cracker." He was absolutely terrific in the part with his eye patch, cane and cape presenting Clara her Nutcracker. He will be greatly missed and his was a life well lived.

“ We have many fond memories of Travis. He was a kind, gentle man and a passionate square dancer. He was always there to dance and to help when help was needed. Ozone Squares was so very saddened to hear of his passing and he will be missed so much. We know he's squared up right now and enjoying God's beautiful music. Yellow rocks to you Travis!

“ When I first met Travis, I enjoyed square dancing with him. He had a little skip in his step that showed how much fun he was having. For many years he danced with our little square dance family and was very active in teaching the new classes of dancers each year. We will mourn the loss of our loving, helpful and faithful square dancing Ozone member. May he rest in peace, through the mercy of Our Lord, Jesus Christ.
