“ i knew randy from high school in bowdon but the most peculiar meeting he and i shared was when i was at infantry school in jax nc as a young marine . we had a certain health inspection one morning and i looked up to see randy doing the inspection as he was a corpsman in the navy. we both stood and had a good laugh about bumping into each other that far from home and in that setting. i never saw him without a smile on his face. his outlook on life was wonderful and always with joy. as we say in the marines, SEMPER FI my friend.
