“ Wendy, I always admired you for the care you gave your sister!
Please don't ever think you fell short in any way. You may have regrets but we all do during our life.you did more than I could ever have done. You missed out on a lot of times with your friends who will be thinking of you as they find out . We ALL LOVE YOU!

Correction— My daddy was named Robert William Rosenbalm. The way the obit reads indicateds that his last name was Williams. It was not. Mama was a Coldwell who married a Rosenbalm.
