“ As choir director she, with God's direction, set the tone and prepare the setting for the preaching of God's word. I especially appreciated her dedication. Unable to show my respect by my visitation I will see her soon. Love and prayers Rev. Danny and Debbie Murray

“ Mrs. Laney was a very special Southern Lady who I referred to as Good Granny. She was always willing to help others and was a big help to my family when she prepared and delivered meals for my ailing parents. Idle hands are the devil's workshop, she would say. She made an impression on me! My thoughts and prayers to the family.
