

Mr. Walter Newton Robinson

March 21, 1931 - March 14, 2026

Mr. Walter Newton Robinson, of Bowdon, Georgia, passed away peacefully on March 14, 2026, at the age of 94.

Mr. Robinson was born at home in Bowdon on March 21, 1931, to the late Nathan Newton Robinson and Ella Mae Huddleston Robinson. Raised with a strong work ethic and a deep appreciation for learning, he attended Berry College where he not only pursued his studies but also worked in the college's forestry program—an experience that helped shape his lifelong love of the outdoors.

He served his country in the United States Army during the Korean War. After returning home, he began his career at Lockheed Martin in Marietta before eventually joining Prudential Insurance. Through dedication and integrity, he built a successful career there and later retired as a financial planner, having helped many families plan for their futures.

Walter was a lifelong learner with a curious mind and a love for reading. He found great joy in nature and spent many happy hours fishing, canoeing, and hiking. He treasured meaningful conversations and had a gift for connecting with people, whether they were lifelong friends or someone he had just met. Those who knew him will remember his thoughtful nature, his wisdom, and the genuine interest he took in others.

Above all else, Walter cherished his family. Whether at home or traveling together on vacation, the moments spent with those he loved most were the ones he valued the greatest. His steady presence, kind heart, and devotion to his family will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

He is survived by his beloved wife of nearly 70 years, Faye Robinson; his children, Sherry Robinson and Robert Robinson; his grandchildren, Amanda Dilliard (Josh), Nathan Robinson (Kelsey), and Lara Adams (Zack); his great-grandchildren, Sterrett Dillard, Powell Dillard, Davis Dillard, Walter N. Robinson II, and Evelyn Adams; and his brother and sister, Charles Robinson and Joyce Hope.

Funeral services for Mr. Robinson will be held on Tuesday, March 17, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. at the Chapel of Rainwater Funeral Home. Rev. Scott Estes will officiate and eulogies will be given by Mr. Robinson's granddaughters, Amanda Dillard and Lara Adams. Interment will follow at Mountain View Baptist Church Cemetery.

Prior to the service on Tuesday, the family will receive friends from 12:00 p.m. until the funeral hour.

“Walter was such an unflappable character nothing would knock him off course. We went deep sea fishing one year when the weather was horrible (7 to 8 foot seas). Almost no one even put a line in the water. Walter however, even caught a fish. He remarked "it wasn't the best day for fishing was it?" The epitome of go with the flow. Although we didn't see you much the last several you'll be greatly missed.

“20 years ago, Walter traveled with my husband, John Taylor, on our new to us sailboat from Melbourne, FL to Savannah, GA. The five-day trip covered 320 nautical miles along the Intracoastal waterway. Walter was wonderful company and an invaluable help along the trip. We feel very blessed to have known him. He made a big impression in a short time. Prayers and comfort to your family.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Robinson when his wife Faye Robinson had hip surgery at Emory University Hospital, where I was her nurse. My heart is broken. He never knew me. He treated me as if he had an help me out my life. He and his wife is two of the best people I know. My heart felt sympathy goes to Mrs. Faye Robinson. I am so sorry for your loss. I feel so sad. I did not know that I would cry and be upset because we only spent a short time together. They made a very good impression on my life. I will never forget the time that we spent together. Just know that I'm praying for the family. I love you guys dearly. Again I'm so sorry.
