“ Some of my very earliest memories involve Miss Wilma Jo. She was my Uncle Elmer Bohannon's secretary at the Probate Office. Miss Wilma Jo would hold me in her lap and let me "play" with the adding machine---how I loved watching the numbers go down and the totals come up! Being an Army brat meant lots of moving and changes; Miss Wilma Jo didn't change~~she was always smiling and greeted me at the door. In 1979, we became working friends when I went to work at Tag Office. I got to see her several times at Memory Lane--still beautiful and smiling. May the Lord bring you comfort in the days ahead. “ My mother, who suffers from dementia, moved to Majestic Senior Living in April. Mrs. Wilma Joe sat at her table at meal times and was always so gracious and kind to her. I enjoyed the brief time I knew Mrs. Wilma and will always remember her kindness. She was a true Southern lady.
