“ I met Wilson through the Corner Cafe. I remember when I started to work day shifts and was told to expect this man and his buddies in before open for a cup of coffee. Like clock work. And. I grew to cherish that time.

Wilson had this way about him. He made us feel loved. And. Boy, could he make us laugh. I thank God for Wilson.

I thank God I was able to hear him share about his love for Miss Martha and their family. I thank God for the times he gave me the honor to pray for his beautiful wife and family. I thank God I was able to see tears fill his eyes for the great love he had in his heart for them.

This earth, this town, the square, will not be the same without him but my heart burns brighter because of him. How he loved like Jesus--unconditionally.

I pray the peace and comfort of God for all Wilson's family and friends, but I rejoice in the Lord for having blessed us with him for so long!

“ As a young man, I spent many an hour playing Pool and cutting up at Wilson's. I loved all the regulars and listening in on all the pool hall talk...and nobody racked 'em like he did...not even George...but it is the times that I spent privately talking with Wilson that will stay with me the rest of my days. He always had an ear to lend, a wise word to share, and a smile to give.

He was one of the greats. I will be forever grateful to have known and learned from him. Rest in Peace Mr. Wilson...I'll never forget you.
